THE CHINESE MAIL.

FROM and after the Chinese New Year's day (February 17, 1874) the Chinese Mail will be issued daily instead of twice weekly as heretofore. No change, however, will be made in the price of subscription, which will remain at $4 per annum.

The charges for advertisements are now assimilated to those of the China Mail. The unusual success which has attended the Chinese Mail makes it an admirable medium for advertisers.

The Conductors guarantee an eventual circulation of one thousand copies. It is already the most influential native journal published, and enjoys considerable prestige at the Ports of China and Japan, and at Singapore, Penang, Calcutta, San Francisco and Australia.

THE CHINA MAIL.
HONGKONG, TUESDAY, JAN. 2, 1877.

This year that has just closed may be considered an exceptionally eventful one in regard to affairs in the Far East.
Among the more important events there must be placed the signing of the Chefoo Convention; the opening of the first railway in China; the settlement of the Anna affair; some apparently successful operations of the Chinese army in the North-west; the "paper men" excitement; the persecution and murder of native Christians; and the death of the Grand Secretary Wenhsang. As to the state of trade during the period, we are sorry to have to note that the depression has continued. That trade, however, has shown no signs of revival during the twelve months is, no doubt, owing in a great measure to the unsettled state of affairs consequent on the Yunnan outrage, and the subsequent negotiations, and, what perhaps is a more important cause, the fact that harvests that have caused so much suffering and distress in the country. It is to be hoped and believed that the opening of the new ports, better harvests; a quieter state of the country; improved trading facilities; and a clearer understanding in regard to these, will not be without some beneficial effects upon the trade during the year on which we have just entered. With the exception perhaps of the settlement of the Anna affair; foreigners, or at all events those who are interested in the China trade, can scarcely be congratulated on any one of the events of the last twelve months. The Chefoo Convention is certainly not viewed with much favour.

As to the Woosung Railway, the future of that spirited enterprise is, at the present moment, clouded in the greatest doubt and uncertainty, so far as it is seen outside the circle of Chinese diplomats. No foreigner is able to say whether the Railway will have ceased to be existence before the end of the year, or whether it will have entered on a new lease of life and activity under Chinese auspices.
All we know is that it will become the absolute property of the Chinese Government by purchase next autumn, and that they will have full power to carry it on or stop it as they please. We should have been better satisfied had there been no prospect of its passing out of the possession of the Company; still it is quite possible that at the end of the term the Chinese will continue to carry it on, and let us trust, extend the system to other parts of the country.
The foolish and ruinous war in the northwest seems as far from a termination as ever. One or two glowing accounts of successes that have fallen to the Imperial arms have appeared in the Peking Gazette, but it is impossible to say with any degree of certainty what is the state of affairs in Kansuh at the present time, and the Chinese army may now be as near disaster as triumph. Under any circumstances the war can never furnish the Chinese Government with much cause for satisfaction. The persecution of the native Christians in the country can no doubt be traced to the animosity of the literati to the new religion, and partly, perhaps, to the machinations of the Secret Societies.
These persecutions, which in some cases took the form of diabolical attempts to slay, are happily now almost subdued.
To the Secret Societies is also generally ascribed the arousing of the incredible excitement, which visited now one part of the country and then another, with respect to "paper-men" and other monstrosities. The origin of this excitement and its objects can, however, be scarcely stated in a positive manner, but it is pretty certain that it was directed against the native Christians as well as against the reigning dynasty. The Government evidently recognises in these societies a great danger to itself, and has lately made fresh efforts to suppress them. What with empty coffers, the ruinous war in the North-west, the hostile Secret Societies, the famines arising from the short crops, China is in a very sorry condition indeed, and one little misadventure might at any moment prove fatal to the present occupant of the Dragon Throne and set the whole country in a blaze. Japan has had one serious trouble during the year, namely, the rebellion which originated at Kumamoto in October last, but her Government are to be congratulated on another event of perhaps equal importance, inasmuch as it saved the country from a war. We allude to the amicable settlement of the Corean difficulty on the 27th February, when a treaty of commerce and friendship was signed between the two countries. There was an immense conflagration at Tokio a few weeks ago, in which some nine or ten thousand houses were burnt to the ground; but on the whole, good crops and a revival for a period at all events of the trade at the chief ports has rendered the year a fairly prosperous one for Japan.
In Hongkong we have had no great calamity such as that in 1874, or great windfall to chronicle. Trade has remained in the depressed state it was at the advent of the year; it has perhaps got a little worse, although at the present time it is somewhat singular that money is tight and seems to command a remunerative rate of interest. No doubt the trade here appears to be in a worse condition than it really is through a much greater proportion of it than formerly being in the hands of the Chinese, and we fear that that proportion will gradually continue to increase.
However an improvement of trade in China means an improvement of trade in Hongkong, and therefore we must hope that the opening of the new ports, better crops, a quieter state of the country and so on, will have the beneficial results we have previously indicated. The other chief events in Hongkong during the year have been the announcement of the removal in a few weeks of Sir Arthur Kennedy to Queensland, and the appointment of Mr. John Pope Hennessy to the post he vacates as Governor of this Colony. Sir Arthur has been a popular Governor here, and his departure will be viewed with very considerable regret.
Of his successor we have heard a great deal, and we must confess that the news of his appointment as the successor of Sir Arthur Kennedy has not awakened a large amount of enthusiasm in Hongkong, but for all that we are quite sure the community here will have the good sense to judge of the new Governor as they find him. He is at all events a gentleman of great energy, learning and ability—qualities extremely valuable in a Governor. Perhaps the only other local events worth noting here, in this brief return, are the appointment of the Mr. C. B. Plunket to the post of Registrar of the Supreme Court, rendered vacant by the death of the Mr. W. H.
Alexander; the appointment of Mr.
Phillippo to the office of Attorney General upon the transference of Mr. Bramston to the Colonial Office; and the C. C.
Whitmore case, the particulars of which are so well known to our readers that we need not recapitulate them.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Khiva reports very severe weather outside.

The S. S. Norma has gone over to Cosmopolitan Docks to clean and paint.

We are informed that the O. S. S. steamer Menelaus, left Singapore for port to-day.

The cases before the Summary Jurisdiction Court to-day were of a trivial nature, and were chiefly between Chinese litigants.

Amongst the passengers arrived to-day per steamer Khiva will be noticed the name of the Hon. Mr. Phillippo, the new Attorney General for Hongkong.

The Flying Squadron had been ordered to leave Singapore en route to Plymouth on the 26th Dec. The Straits papers speak of a ball, and mention that a cricket match had been arranged for.

We have to acknowledge receipt of the "Chronicle and Directory for China, Japan, the Philippines, &c.," published at the Daily Press office.

The British barque Unanima reports having experienced very heavy weather off the Cape of Good Hope, when she had her skylight stove in and cabins filled with water.

We are requested to call the attention of Mercantile houses to the fact that Continental Post Offices will not deliver Patterns exceeding 8 ounces in weight, but return them to the Office of origin. Similarly Books for the Continent of Europe must not exceed two pounds weight.

The maximum temperature at the Peking during the past week, as recorded in day's Gazette, was 62.5, the minimum 47.5, at the Harbour-Master's Office, the maximum was 69.0, and the minimum 53.0.
No rain fell during the week.

At the Marine Court to-day Wilhelm Roquist and Frederick Honilla, seamen belonging to the Danish barque J. H. Los, were charged with being drunk and assaulting the Captain (F. S. Hansen). The assault was sworn to by the Captain and corroborated by the 2nd Mate (W.
Wakenan); and the defendants, who stood in their defence that they only wanted to money to go on shore and could not get were each sentenced to 3 days' imprisonment with hard labour.

A FIRE of a somewhat serious nature occurred in Canton on the night of the December last. The scene of the conflagration was one of the wealthiest in Western suburb. The origin of the was supposed to be incendiary, occur-ing as it did in a shop which had been vacated as an opium-smoking den.
than ten houses were consumed, among them were three well-known ing houses. No lives were lost, the families of the respectable Chinese living in this neighbourhood were alarmed. In the case of one aristocratic house, there happened to be a coffin of taining the remains of a deceased relative, and on the alarm being given, those in the house were placed in a most anxious state of mind for the safety of the coffin, which was removed before any other property was looked after.

ACCORDING to the Indian papers the salutary Delhi next New Year's Day in honour the Empress of India is to be fired for 608 guns in salutes of six simultaneous and as the Proclamation is to be read the open air, some apprehensions are entertained lest the assemblage may be deluged with rain brought on by the firing of many cannon. There seems to be no doubt that heavy and continuous cannon firing is a powerful "medicine" for making rain, as the annals of war prove, and it is surprising that in times of drought that never occur to Government to utilise this well-known scientific fact in order to also gather prevent or mitigate famines. It would certainly have been more economical, to put the matter on the lowest ground, for the Indian Government to have burnt any quantity of powder in the famine districts of the Madras and Bombay Presidencies in order to prevent the failure of the crops, than to be spending now lace upon lace to save natives from starvation.

THOSE Members of the Bar who are now present in Singapore (says the Singapore Times) paid a tribute to his Lordship, the Acting Chief Justice, Phillippo, as this was the last day he would meet the Bar. The Court was closed about 2 o'clock and the Attorney General, before the Court rose, addressing his Lordship as representing the unqualified and unanimous sentiments of all the members of the Bar, and the public too, will sustain in the retirement of his Lordship from Singapore, and in bidding him farewell, he carried with him the warm and heartfelt respects and wishes of all for his future prosperity, and promotion in the profession. The address will no doubt be printed in full. His Lordship briefly replied. "Mr. Attorney General and gentlemen, I am gratified at the manner in which you have expressed yourselves; I am sure you have spoken in too flattering a way, and given expressions to sentiments which I am not quite worthy."

you as a perfect stranger and when I met on the beach, for the first time I hoped to work harmoniously, and you were equally concerned to maintain the dignity of the Bench. I must say, that both in Singapore and in Penang this our mutual understanding has been well kept; I have done my best, and if I have succeeded in gaining this good-will on your part, I leave the Colonel with the esteem and respect of all I have had to deal with. I have in every instance, while free to oblige you, yet endeavoured to keep up the dignity of the Bench."

SAD ACCIDENT ON BOARD H. M. S. "NEWCASTLE."

The Singapore Times has the following, in its issue of 20th ult.:

"We regret to announce, that by a deplorable accident on board H. M. S. Newcastle, while on her voyage from Hongkong, Mr. Wingfield, a midshipman, and three sailors were drowned. It appears that one of the sailors whilst engaged in hauling in the log accidentally fell overboard, and Mr. Wingfield, who was looking on, jumped overboard to his assistance but to no avail and both sank. In the endeavour to rescue them, two sailors were drowned, thus making a loss of four lives. The sea was rather rough at the time and the vessel was going at a good speed."

It would appear that there are some circumstances connected with this most unfortunate accident which call for some explanation. Private advices from Singapore imply that some difference of opinion exists (to use no stronger term) as to whether or not everything was done on board the Newcastle that might have been done to save the drowning officer and men. If there is the slightest ground for doubting that the utmost efforts were put forth to effect the rescue of the gallant fellows who have met their death while endeavouring to save another, that is a matter which will be certain to receive full investigation. Our contemporary at Singapore throws no light whatever on the subject. The version of the affair we have received says that on the 13th a petty officer named Miles, while heaving the log, by some means fell overboard—the ship then (at 3 p.m.) going about 8 knots. A midshipman named Wingfield at once jumped overboard to help Miles, and was followed by two seamen, while a life-buoy was let go. By the time the ship was holed to and a boat lowered, the vessel would be about a mile and a quarter from the spot where the accident took place. To tow back this distance against wind and sea would have probably taken an hour, as the boat was undermanned, two of her crew having been pulled out in lowering. At the same time the sea is described as having been "not very bad," the temperature of the water was 81 degrees, and the three noble fellows who sprang to the rescue are spoken of as the best swimmers in the ship. This being so, considerable surprise is said to have been felt on board when Captain Douglas recalled the boat within half an hour of its despatch; and upon its return (about 1½ hour after the accident) gave orders to resume the voyage. Our correspondent even says that one of the officers suggested to the Captain the advisability of beating back, and that the suggestion was unfavourably received. The three swimmers are said by good authorities to have been men well able to keep afloat for six hours; and poor Wingfield was last seen tying a life-collar round Miles' neck and blowing it out. This sad affair has cast a gloom over the ship, and general regret was felt in Singapore that so much that was unsatisfactory hung about the whole business. We sincerely trust that a very different account may yet be given of the accident, explaining some of the circumstances which at present seem to be so inexplicable. One of the poor fellows drowned named Heck had already got a Humane Society's medal and clasp.

The Messageries Maritimes Company's steamer Tonquin, 3,600 tons and 2,416 net tonnage, now building at their yard at La Ciotat, is in a forward state, and will be ready to launch in January, completing her fitting in time to proceed from Marseilles to China in July. The Songkoi, a steamer of similar size, now on the stocks, will probably be ready by the end of next year. In the course of a report upon the trade of Canton for the year 1876, Sir Brooke Robertson, H.M. Consul at Canton, calls prominent attention to the abuse of weighting shirtings with what is termed "heavy rising." He points out that the rise is now perfectly understood by the Chinese, and is as a loss to understand why it is persevered in.

The subjoined appointments, to relieve these officers whose term of service on the China Station has expired, are gazetted:—The Growler, Commander C. E. D. Wilcox (1870); Assistant Paymaster B. B. Saville (1873); to the Hornet, Assistant Paymaster L. C. Hodder (1873); to the Albatross, Assistant Paymaster R. P. Hawkes (1870); to the Sydney, Lieutenant O. P. Tindal (1866), in command; Assistant Paymaster W. H. W. Markham (1876).

It is announced that another Japanese officer has been entered on board the Audacious, Vice Admiral Byrd's flagship on the China Station. The number of foreigners serving under the British flag has been greatly reduced of late; and at the present time there are only six, all of whom, with one exception, that of a Swede, are Japanese.

It is announced that the head-quarters of the 80th Regiment will for the present remain in the Straits Settlements, and only a wing will go to Mauritius. It is believed the head-quarters will, however, be withdrawn to the Cape eventually, the regiment being its tour of foreign service there.

Police Intelligence.

PETTY THEFT.

Chang Aohew, a coolie, was caught in the act of stealing some empty soda-water bottles which were in a box on the Canton steamer wharf, the same having been sent down from Canton yesterday. The defendant was sent to 21 days' hard labour and to be kept in the stocks for two hours at the wharf.

BREACH OF THE PEACE.

Yow Aning and another, hawkers, were brought up for fighting at West Point. It appeared that the 2nd defendant had been previously held on a rule of bail in $50 to be of good behaviour for six months. As he had committed himself now, his bond was ordered to be estreated, and the 1st defendant was fined 25 cents.

LARCENY.

Chow Ask, a carpenter, was observed leaving a house in Saiyongpoo with some clothing which did not belong to him. The defendant was sent to six weeks' hard labour.

TELEGRAMS.

(Straits Times Extra.)
London, Dec. 11.—Lord Salisbury had an audience of the Sultan on Saturday, and was cordially received.

The French crisis continues. The Republic majority insist on the formation of a Cabinet from the Left; and Marshal McMahon is unwilling to agree to this.

Constantinople, Dec. 12.—The first informal meeting of the Conference was held at the Russian Embassy yesterday.

A more confident feeling prevails concerning the result.

Calcutta, Dec. 13.—The case of Hogg vs. Wilson commenced on Monday. The prosecutor's case closed to-day. The jury intimated that they did not wish to hear any further evidence regarding the mode in which the Municipal elections had been conducted.

Constantinople, Dec. 13.—At the Conference yesterday, General Ignatieff being president, a conciliatory disposition was manifested on all sides, but proceedings are kept secret.

As soon as bases of agreement are settled, the Ottoman delegates will assist in the deliberations.

Paris, Dec. 13.—French Ministry remodelled after a Radical form.—M. Jules Simon becomes Premier and Minister of Justice, whilst other offices remain unchanged.

Thus the conflict between Marshal McMahon and members of the Left, which once threatened to become serious, is ended.

Calcutta, Dec. 16.—The case of Hogg vs. Wilson was concluded yesterday. (This was the case in which Sir Stuart Hogg, late Chairman of the Municipality charged Mr. James Wilson, proprietor and editor of the Indian Daily News, with libel, said to be contained in certain articles written and published by the latter, imputing the action of the former in connection with the recent Municipal elections.) After the Judge's summing up, the jury twice retired, and ultimately gave a unanimous verdict in favor of the defendant, adding that the law manner in which the recent elections were conducted gave a sufficient colour of unfairness towards the defendant to lead them to believe that he wrote the articles in good faith.

Mr. Wilson was loudly cheered on leaving the Court.

Constantinople, Dec. 14.—The absence of the Ottoman delegates from the preliminary sittings of the Conference is causing discontent at Constantinople.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Congress has passed a bill for the coinage of silver dollars weighing 412½ grains as legal tender, unless gold is specially stipulated.

Addresses from the Democratic and Republican National Committees each announce the election of Tilden and of Hayes.

The ultimate decision rests with the Congress in February.

China.

SHANGHAI.

(News.)

H.B.M.'s Charybdis has arrived with the Lapwing, having accomplished the passage from the Gulf of Pechili with apparently little difficulty. The hull of the Lapwing is somewhat damaged, and it is expected she will go into dock in a few days.

On Christmas Day, some benevolent Chinese forwarded to the Central Police Station, for distribution by Mr. Penfold, 2,000 padded cotton jackets. The only restriction accompanying the gift was that the jinrikisha runners should be first served, and hundreds of these were supplied the same afternoon. The distribution of the surplus was left to Mr. Penfold's discretion.

We mentioned, a few days ago, that Mr. Davenport had gone overland to Chinkeang, with the object of ascertaining that the proclamations, announcing the settlement of the Yunnan case, were posted in accordance with the stipulation. It is satisfactory to learn that they were found properly exhibited everywhere; both inside and outside the town, and at conspicuous places in the large thoroughfares in the country. Some were simply posted on the walls, but the greater part were on boards, which are hung up during the day and carried in at night.

The German barque Pallas, which arrived yesterday (Dec. 28th) from Sydney, grounded in the river at Wooning at 8 a.m. on the 26th, and was unable to get off on the three subsequent tides. She sustained no damage.

The new stern-wheel steamer Packong, built by Messrs. Farman and Co., was taken another trial trip yesterday (Dec. 28th). She left the Old Dock at 11 o'clock in the forenoon with a small company of gentlemen on board, the route taken was up the river, and in an hour and seventeen minutes a point called Saikong was reached, the distance completed being computed at about twenty miles. This, of course, makes her speed about fifteen miles an hour. She was then turned round and made an equally successful return passage, arriving alongside the Wharf shortly before two o'clock.

Two very beautiful windows have been placed in the South side of the Cathedral in memory of the late Robert Reid, Esq. M.P. They represent "Joseph making himself known to his brethren," and are erected by Messrs. Lavers, Barrand, and Westlake, of Endell Street, London. In richness of colour and simplicity of design these windows have no rivals in the Cathedral. They have the genuine warm tint of ancient glass, which modern workers so long despised of attaining; and the expressions of the faces are varied and admirable. The inscription reads as follows:—"To the Glory of God, and in affectionate remembrance of Robert Reid, M.P., late of Shanghai. Deceased 20th March, 1875. This window is erected by his brother David."

A gentleman who has lately passed down the Grand Canal, writes that the refugees from the North of the River seem to be comfortably housed at, or rather outside of, Changchow and Soochow. They do not seem to have been very hardily pressed by starvation, as they had their winter clothes on their backs and their women and children with them; and in bad times the Chinese pawn the first and are apt to sell the latter. There can be no doubt, of course, that the scarcity must have been very severe before they were driven to migrate in such numbers, but they appear to have taken time by the forelock, and set out before they were driven to extremity. At Soochow and Changchow the immigrants are living in clean-looking mat-sheds, neatly put up, arranged, and ticketed, and seem well contented. Altogether, the arrangements appeared creditable to the provincial administration.

The Consul-General for the United States notifies that, on and after the 13th February next, on Leken taxes shall be levied upon foreign imports within the limits of the foreign Settlements. This affirms the stipulation in Clause I. of the Trade Section of the Chefoo Convention, with the difference, however, that it is understood the Ministers now at Peking do not accept of the converse principle admitted by Sir Thomas Wade, that Leken may be levied elsewhere. We only hope they see their way to defeating the levy; that is where the difficulty comes in.

The limitation of the period within which drawback may be claimed, to three years, as stipulated in Clause V. of the Convention, is also agreed to, with the concession, however, understood to have been gained by Mr. Von Brandt—that drawback certificates shall be payable in cash if the holder wishes, and not only be available for payment of duties as heretofore.

A Chinaman committed suicide in the city the other morning in a most strange and clumsy manner. Being opposed in a lawsuit, he snatched up a knife and cut his throat across, in a fit of pique; then, to the horror of the neighbours, rushed out into the streets, a terrible object, and eventually fell headlong into a pond, where he died.

We are informed on undoubted authority that a party of a dozen (?) friends met this Christmas in Shanghai, who, being mostly old residents in China had the curiosity to reckon up their several terms of sojourn in the country; and that the aggregate was found to amount to no less than 256 years, giving to each an average of over 22 years. Seven of the party averaged 31 years each, six 33 years, and five 34 years; and we are happy to be able to add that the veterans are all enjoying the best of health.

A good deal of difficulty still crops up from time to time with native couriers, etc., in the interior. Some months ago a courier carrying packages from our office to Soochow and Kweichow was waylaid, beaten and robbed, because it was known that he was in possession of foreign papers; and now we hear that between Hankow and Chungking there are perpetual interruptions. These are believed to occur principally at Kwei Fu, where, we are informed, a very anti-foreign individual, noted for his obstructiveness, has been placed in charge of the liken office. There seems to be still great dissatisfaction in Yunnan, all the officials there expressing themselves much mortified at the results of the Chefoo Convention, particularly those clauses which concede the right of establishing commercial intercourse with that province and Burma. The affair had been left so long in abeyance that they thought themselves safe from molestation, having come to the conclusion that these were evidently unable to enforce our rights. The only regret to our mind is that these "rights" should have been mentioned in any Treaty whatever. They are self-existent and pre-existent, and stand far above all Treaty stipulations; or, rather, they constitute part of the only basis upon which Treaties can be concluded and international relations carried on. This is one of the first elements of the diplomatic gospel, and we shall never tire of preaching it.

HANKOW.

The Hankow Market Report says there has been very little demand for foreign manufactures during the past fortnight, and quotations are quite nominal, the only business reported having been the sale of 500 pieces Grey Jeans at 14s. 4d.—A good business has been passing in cotton, but advice from the interior not being so satisfactory, a decline has taken place for common and medium qualities of over one cent per picul, and the demand is slack.—N. O. Daily News.

PEKING.

The Peking Gazette of the 11th December contains a decree appointing two new members to the Yamen of Foreign Affairs, in the person of Li Hung-tao, President of the Board of Works, and King-ling, the chief of the Censorate, these two high functionaries being at the same time members of the Grand Council of State, and the only two members of that body who have not hitherto been associated with the department of Foreign Affairs. Their appointment is presumably made in connection with the vacancies caused by the death of Wen siang in May last and the recent departure of Kwong Sungtao for Europe.

In the same Gazette a decree appears deploring the death of Chang-shih, in the post of Military Governor of Shekping; and his brother, Chang-how, left Peking on the following day to succeed him at Moukden.—N. O. Daily News.

KWANG-SI.

Kwei-yang Fuh, 30th Nov., 1876. Since my last we have heard of an insurrection in Kwang-si, and now we hear of troubles at the Kwei-fuh Customs, and Leki Harrier in Sze-chuan. It was also quietly rumoured last week that H. I. Majesty Kwang-si had died of some dreadful disease or other cause. It is probable that the report of trouble in Kwang-si is true, but the rest may be only the false reports set afloat by members of secret societies.

From Ky-chow, a chow city about 160 li from here, we learn that the people have seized the Che-chow, or Magistrate, and are bringing him here as a prisoner for having unlawfully levied or imposed an extra amount of Grain tax. The Military examinations which commenced on the 19th instant are nearly ended, and everything is going on very quietly. The local issue of the Peking Gazette not having yet appeared there is a good demand for the Shingpai, as people are anxious to know the results of the "Chefoo Conference." Mining operations are again at a standstill for the want of capital and genuine enterprise.—Shanghai Courier.

THE LATE RIOTS AT SINGAPORE.

(Singapore Times.)

On Saturday 44 of the rioters were tried before Captain Walshe at the Police Court and of these 17 were sentenced to 8 months' rigorous imprisonment and 30 stripes with a rattan each. Five of these were declared by the Colonial Surgeon unfit to receive the latter punishment, and 27 of the prisoners were sentenced to 4 months' rigorous imprisonment each, and solitary confinement during the last week in each month.

On Saturday and yesterday (Dec. 17th) business was suspended at Raffles Market and many provision shops were closed to the inconvenience of many, and as a proclamation, issued doubtless by the leaders of the riots was posted near the market advising that provisions should not be sold to the "Barbarians," Mr. Read, Mr. Pickering and other gentlemen went to the market dealers and the shopkeepers to induce them to resume business and the reply given was that if the towkays who were then confined in the police station were released, the shops would be reopened and business resumed in the market.

This impudent request was properly rejected by the authorities by sending twelve of the towkays on board the Colonial steamer Philo, there to be kept in the harbour until all signs of rioting or disobedience shall have disappeared. In consequence, Mr. Douglas, the Colonial Secretary, summoned a number of towkays to meet him at the Police Office yesterday afternoon, and he informed them of the intention of the Government and warned all the Chinese dealers to open their shops else they continued disobedient, the consequences to them would be serious. Mr. Pickering, who deserves great credit for the indefatigable manner he has acted during these riots, translated Mr. Douglas's remarks to the traders. Afterwards the Colonial Secretary accompanied by all the unofficial members of Council visited the towkays in custody, and informed them of the decision of the Government, which intelligence they received with but satisfaction. A detachment of the 80th Regiment under the command of Col. Lynch was in readiness outside the Central Police Station, and the twelve prisoners were marched through Boat Quay to Johnston's Pier, when they were placed in a boat which conveyed them to the Philo. That vessel immediately steamed some distance out. Crowds of Chinese witnessed the procession in Boat Quay, and this determined action of Government is sure to have good effect. Shortly after the prisoners had been placed on board the Philo, about six hundred marines and blue jackets from the Detached Squadron were paraded on Collyer Quay, whether owing to a misunderstanding or not is not known, but the step could not have been adopted for the purpose of making a show of our strength as was surmised, because the police have been assisting in the same complaint to deal without assistance with these miserable rioters. This morning the markets and shops are open and trade proceeds as usual. Mr. Trotter, the Post Master General, with admirable tact, had the sub-post office which was attacked, reopened and all letters for the Chinese are now being delivered through that office. The Chinamen who have charge of the office addressed the curious few who had assembled outside the shop, assuring them of the advantages which the establishment of the office offers, and business is now being carried on there under Mr. Trotter's active supervision. We may conclude, therefore, that the riots are at an end; and we have to thank the Government for the measures taken to quell the disturbances. The police behaved admirably, and the public are greatly indebted to Captain Walshe, Mr. Maxwell, and the Inspectors and the body generally for the excellent manner in which they have acted during the anxious days since Friday last. His Excellency the Governor has ordered the police to be paraded in front of the central station this afternoon at four o'clock, when he intends to thank them personally for the services they have rendered. We append a translation of some of the various proclamations issued regarding the establishment of the post office, a perusal of which will convince our readers that what might have been a serious outbreak has been fortunately nipped in the bud. The occurrences of Friday have not brought home to us what the machinations of Secret Societies are capable of effecting, and we have had an illustration of the manner in which they can be turned against the Government as well as against each other.

The following is the announcement from the Government Gazette of the establishment of the Chinese Sub-Post Office:—"Chinese Sub-Post Offices will on the 15th instant be opened at 81 Market Street, Singapore, and at 52 Beach Street, Penang, for the receipt of letters written by Chinese coolies, addressed to their friends in the interior of China. Such letters will be forwarded to their destination by way of the Treaty Ports of Amoy and Swatow."

The following was issued by the Chinese firm appointed to conduct the Sub-Post Office:—"Our firm has only received the order of the Government Postmaster-General to collect letters at Singapore, Penang and Malacca for transmission to the Chinese ports Amoy and Swatow, this is for the benefit of all, and we dare not do anything that would disappoint your hopes and expectations. On the 8th of the present month, that is 15th December, 1876, we shall open our office in Market Street, Singapore, if any gentlemen wish to send letters you will send them to our office made up in the usual form and they will be forwarded or answers will be returned in the quickest and most speedy manner. There will be no falling on our part. If people persist in secretly forwarding letters, they will when found out be strictly examined and dealt with according to law.

"Besides this we have received permission from the Govt. to carry money letters office, and our firm dare guarantee to transfer against any loss or mistake on transmission. Every thing will be done on the most thorough manner for the mutual benefit of all. Any hon'ble gentleman wishing to remit money may do it through our office, and the scale of fees for money letters is clearly set forth below for general information. We hope our customers will rejoice the hearts of their friends at home in the various villages by remitting largely. As every charge for distributing the letters to the various towns and hamlets is borne by our office and we shall deliver every sum without the deduction of a single cash we trust, we hope, that all our friends wishing to send letters will make up their letters in the usual manner and not make them too bulky. The above tariff will be charged on no more, we dare not ask for more. We have thus explained everything very minutely that there may be no mistake. May Branch CHION WANG.

Chop KAY CHEE HANG, Trading from HOK CHEE HANG, Swatow, Dec. 11th, 1876.

The following proclamation was extensively posted on the 13th, two days before the disturbances:—

THE MEN OF CANTON AND HOKKIAN. "If any honest or virtuous man will out off the head of the Post Office Farmers they will be rewarded with 100 taels.

"The ancients said, 'Rules that exist do not establish.' Any laws that are of benefit to the people then they are according to the righteous principle. The saying is 'the family which lays up a store of goodness must have an abundance of happiness; that which lays up a store of wickedness must receive an abundance of misery.' The rules of heaven are clear, you cannot neglect them in the least. Though you may do wicked things without men seeing, three feet above your heads are the intelligent spirits.

"The perfect man wished to assist and succour the miserable. The ancients said 'when the hare is killed the fox sympathizes, he would not hurt his species.' If the wild animals understand justice how much more he who is at the head of all creatures. But he is worse than the animals. Now some of your intelligent ones have imposed on the Barbarian prince and intrigued to farm the Post Office just for their own private interest. Surely they do not know the righteousness of Heaven true to hurt and injure us Chinese for the benefit of barbarians. What kind of righteousness is this! Truly this can be called regarding profit and forgetting justice."

The police having discovered the posting of the foregoing, issued the following in Chinese, and which was posted throughout the town:—

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE OFFICE. "I hereby special notice to inform all people plainly that the new post office is established in order to benefit the people and to enable them to send letters to their friends. There is nothing like a farm or any such business. Now, to-day, some wicked men have been circulating placards to excite and deceive you people; do not believe them and all will be well.

This notice informs you that if any person will give information to lead to the arrest of the people who wrote or circulated the placard in question, the Inspector General will give him a reward of $200; there will be no eating of words.

Singapore, 13th Dec. 1876. 10th moon 28th day."

Afterwards the following proclamations were posted:—

NOTICE FROM ALL SINGAPORE KONGSIS.

"Riches and wealth are things men desire, poverty and meanness are what men dislike. These things are settled by Heaven, how can people get them by seeking? The ancients have said 'A virtuous man desiring wealth will get it according to justice, so that he may not be ashamed. We hear that lately one or two rascals with covetous desires and disregarding justice have been with the ruler of Singapore and with fair speeches and intriguing plans have established a post office intending to begin gradually and to go on to a great depth. They intend to oppress the Chinese in their private gains. To rich men this does not matter, but truly it is cheating the poor people. We have come to these barbarous tribes, is it not because our families are poor and can scarcely pass the day over for want of food? Is it not that to feed our wives and children we have left our relatives and come here to labour and carry and to trade a little for profits which are sent to them to assist their urgent necessities? 'Fah Tai' year 10th Moon, 26th day, we know that since the English Barbarians established the new office in Singapore their rules have for a long time been very beneficial to the subjects. Not like some of our Chinese, one or two of whom are red hats, degenerate fellows of a completely oppressive nature, reckless without any regard to the right. Their own rule is making money, they boldly intrigued and worked on the prices of Singapore and secretly with cunning formed a conspiracy to farm the post office farm. This truly is a course that will prevent us from having very good fortune. This will injure and destroy the living of the people and produce misery beyond description.

"As for you who wish to establish this post office, may your wife and daughter be dressed in finery and placed at the door for men to buy, laugh at and for the use of every lawful person. If not this, then let them die at once. Now after reading this paper, any not feeling his fierce feelings rise has not the principles of a man and if the man who wished to assist in the business does not now change his intention and try to stop it, he is no man. All people reading this must reverently feel grieved and severely determined and then it will be well.

Quang Soe 2nd year 10th moon 28th day, 14th December."

The following was posted in town yesterday:—"This misfortune is because some wolf hearted rascals, greedy of others' gains, have farmed the Singapore Post Office. Singapore people will not agree to this, therefore we have stopped trade, shut up the shops, and we vow now not to trade and will make disturbance and seek to arrest the Post Office farmers until we can cut off their heads, to satisfy the desires of all people. Who would think that un-luckily the Singapore Police would discharge their guns and take the lives of many men—besides this the Police have arrested several traders who suffer for the crime, truly this is a wrong which has not been dressed.

"Yesterday some red haired (English) Merchants with Chinese traders went about earnestly bagging the people to open their shops and to continue trade. But until these Post Office Farmers have been dragged out and their heads cut off, we a warning to all men, we shall not be satisfied and shall cherish revenge in our hearts."

"Last night the men of the two Provinces met in assembly and bound themselves that to day all will combine with united heart and strength to exterminate these Post Office Farmers, their wives and families by bringing them out and out off their heads and thus calm the mind of the towns people.

"If any brave and heroic gentlemen will arrest them and conduct them to be cut off by the roots, truly all of us people will feel under a deep debt of gratitude.

"This Notice is issued by the Kongsoes of the two Provinces."

One of the twelve towkays accused of being concerned in instigating the late riots was this morning removed from on board the Philo, and placed on board the M. M. S. Mekong which will be taken to Hongkong, to which port his passage has been paid. He was sentenced to deportation and he will not be permitted to enter these Settlements again. His name is Lim Ah Tye, and he is the head of the Teo Chew Branch of the Ghee Hin Secret Society. It has not yet been decided what course shall be adopted with the eleven towkays, who have this afternoon been removed from on board the Philo to the Central Police Station, but as the evidence against them in regard to instigating the riots is not so conclusive as in the instance of Lim Ah Tye, the Government it is supposed must be content with requiring them to find recognisances in large amounts for their future good conduct. The town is now perfectly quiet and no more of those absurd proclamations have been posted, but rumours are afloat that those between the Secret Societies is not impracticable.

Ten of the towkays who were removed from on board the Philo yesterday afternoon were shortly afterwards brought before the magistrate and were ordered to enter into recognisances themselves in $3,000 each and two sureties in $5,000 each, as a guarantee for their future good conduct. One towkay, Leah Koo Seng, will be brought up to-day to answer a charge of rioting in Market Street on the day of the disturbances.

COMMERCIAL.

December 31.

The receipts of Bengal Opium, during the closing month, show an aggregate of 3,289 chests, against 3,303 chests in the corresponding month of last year. The total of receipts during the last quarter of the closing year shows 9,061 chests, against 8,582 chests in the corresponding quarter last year; whilst the grand total for the closing year is 37,533 chests, against 35,329 chests in 1876.

Adding the month's receipts to the stock brought forward, there appears a total of 4,639 chests; and as the available supply on date is given at 1,850 chests, a quantity of 2,789 chests has thus been taken off, of which 1,500 chests have been taken by the local consumers and 1,289 chests exported. Comparing these figures with those of previous December, they show thus:—The receipts of the month and the previous stock gave a total of 3,703 chests; and as the month closed with a stock of 850 chests, a quantity of 2,853 chests had been taken off of which 1,350 chests were taken by the local consumers, and 1,503 chests exported.

The fluctuation in the rate of Patna this December has been to the extent of $25, and in that for Benares $15. It should be noted, however, that this fluctuation was chiefly owing to that in the rate of exchange. The fluctuation last December was to the extent of $40 and $35 for the respective kinds, which was owing to causes other than that stated for the fluctuation in this December.

The drug has been supplied cheaper this December; Patna from $33 to $25, and Benares from $43 to $29 per chest.
